Malaysia
The central hub for Southeast Asia

MALAYSIA AND SOUTHEAST ASIA

Malaysia is where the old and new co-exist harmoniously; city streets are lined with skyscrapers and buildings preserved from colonial times. From the shopping malls in Kuala Lumpur to dense rainforests just two hours away, Malaysia is a testimony of distinctiveness in diversity.

It offers a unique blend of affordable living and is rich in traditional and modern art and culture – reflecting the different ethnic groups that make up the country's population. Malays, Chinese, Indians and indigenous peoples provide a cultural mix that is reflected in the many languages, religions and cuisines.

Malaysia has been a central hub and gateway to travel around Southeast Asia that offers an adventure of a lifetime with its world's best diving sites, lush rainforests, rare wildlife, archaeological sites and exciting metropolitan cities.

With its strategic location, it is common for students to travel extensively within Malaysia and neighbouring countries within Southeast Asia. Popular destinations include Thailand (Bangkok, Phuket, Chiang Mai, Koh Samui); Cambodia (Siem Reap – Angkor Wat, Phnom Penh); Indonesia (Bali, Jakarta, Medan); Vietnam (Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City), among other exotic cities.
