FURTHER INFORMATION

Disability

A student's disability will not be a factor in their selection. Telling us you have a disability or health need will not affect the University's decision or not to offer you a place, and the information will remain strictly confidential. It is important that the University knows of any disability for the purposes of monitoring equal opportunities and to ensure that the university can provide students with appropriate facilities.

Do you have a disability?

- Yes
- No

Criminal Convictions

As part of its duty of care to members of the University community, it is our policy to ask applicants whether they have any relevant criminal convictions at the time when they apply to us. If you answer 'yes' to the question below you will not automatically be excluded from the application process. However, the university may want to consider your application further or ask for more information before making a decision. Do you have any criminal convictions?

- Yes
- No

If you check "yes", you might be contacted for further details.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

---

Applicants and their educational representatives should be aware that when they sign the application form they are specifically agreeing to the following:

- that the information contained within the application is true and accurate to the best of their knowledge;
- that the applicant is aware that if they have made an application via one of the University's educational representatives overseas they are themselves responsible for any information that the representative provides to the University on their behalf;
- that the University will process personal data contained in the application form, or other data which the University may obtain from the applicant or other sources. Applicants agree to the processing of such data for any purpose connected with their studies or their health, welfare and safety, or for any other legitimate reason;
- that the University will require any student who has previously studied at the University of Liverpool and who left with an unpaid debt to make arrangements for the repayment of that debt before they can be accepted onto a postgraduate programme;
- that if the University suspects that an applicant has provided false or misleading information, it will carry out an investigation to determine whether these suspicions are justified, and reserves the right to record an unsuccessful decision or withdraw any offer that might already have been made. The University may also refuse to accept a subsequent application from students who have provided false or misleading information in the past;
- that occasionally, for reasons beyond its control the University may be unable to run a programme that has been advertised for any given academic year. Where this occurs and there are applicants who have applied and/or been made an offer for that programme, the university will make every effort to provide an alternative programme to these applicants, but this may not always be possible. The University cannot be liable for any loss that may occur to individual applicants as a result of programmes being withdrawn.

- I confirm that I have read and accept the University of Liverpool's Terms and Conditions
